Do you have your own travel insurance?

If not, please ensure that you arrange it. We are no longer able to arrange it for you.

You will also need a European Health Insurance card - it is essential. This card provides for immediate, free health care in any European country and can be obtained by getting a form from your post office [if you still have one!!] or going on-line and ordering it. The website you need is www.ehic.org.uk and the on-line form takes no longer than five minutes to complete [have your N.H.S. or National Insurance number handy!]. There is no charge and the card usually arrives within the following seven days. If you already have a card, check that it and your passport are and will still be valid!

There will be a meeting for all participants on a date and in a location to be arranged.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to get in touch with Kathy at the Rectory on 01228 521509 and she will do her best to provide answers!

A week's holiday at the fabulous Villa Palazzola, 11th. to 18th. June, 2012

The Villa Palazzola is the holiday, retreat and conference centre owned by the Venerable English College, Rome. Situated in the Alban Hills, eighteen miles south east of Rome, the Villa has a stunning, panoramic view across Lake Albano to the Pope's summer palace at Castel Gandolfo and to Rome and the Mediterranean beyond.

Built on the site of a wealthy Roman's villa, the 13th. century chapel, the 17th. century monastic and 20th. century college buildings have been tastefully modernised to a high standard of comfort and convenience for the 21st. century guest.

The spectacularly situated swimming pool is hewn from the over-hanging cliff face. The wonderful terrace garden provides tranquillity, sun and shade under the sweet-scented bay trees. The local people speak of Palazzola as "the ante-chamber to heaven"! To view it for yourself, visit the website at www.palazzola.it and find out more about its beautiful location.

I envisage the week as primarily a week's holiday, relaxing in the beauty and tranquility of these unique surroundings. However, some or all of you may want us to organise a day or half-day out, either in the surrounding area or, maybe, further afield. When we meet together prior to the holiday, we can discuss people's suggestions and, hopefully, agree where we want to go! If you are interested in joining us, please complete the attached booking form and return it to me, with the appropriate deposit, as soon as possible.
