SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
JUNE 1ST 2003

THIS SUNDAY'S MUSIC.

Entry 292 New Praises be Given. (vv 1,2,3,&6) Off. 627 This is My Body
Comm. 769 Lord Enthroned... Final 694 Alleluia, Sing to Jesus

WARNING !!!!!!! An enterprising youth has been stealing CAFOD envelopes and Newsletters from the church (enterprising and discerning!) and knocking on doors in the area claiming that the Parish Priest has sent him out to collect for the children of Iraq. Such enterprise is not to be encouraged and he should be reported to the police at once!

NEXT SUNDAY is Pentecost Sunday and at the 10.0 Mass a dozen of our youngsters are to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. They have been prepared for this occasion over several weeks and have even been away to Brettargh Holt at Kendal for a weekend's Retreat. Remember to pray for them and their families as they come to this important point in their spiritual journey.

There's a special second collection at all the Masses today for the work of Communication in the Church. You are asked to contribute to those who work, on our behalf, to communicate the Catholic Christian message of the Gospel on TV, Radio, Press in our own country and other countries as well.

NOVENA TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

The prayers of the Novena will continue to be said this week at noon each weekday. Ministers of the Eucharist are encouraged to take a copy of the prayers to the sick and housebound to get them involved in praying for God's Holy Spirit to enlighten all of us.

A Christian Celebration

with Hymns, Readings and Prayers

Sunday 8th June 2003

The Sands Centre, Carlisle

This Pentecost Sunday event has become a most popular occasion in the calendar of Christian Unity in Carlisle. It is because it is so popular that it is now possible to fill the Sands twice on the one day, at 3.30 and 6.30. Fr Turner has FREE tickets for both times – only take them if you really intend to be there. Ask him, or go in the sacristy after Mass, or ring the Rectory doorbell.

For teachers, educators, catechists, and those who would like to do some serious religious studies, the Diocese runs annually a course to gain The Catholic Certificate in Religious Studies. It starts in two centres (Lancaster and Carlisle) in the Autumn and goes on to Summer 2004. Fr Turner has more information or you can ring the Education Centre in Lancaster on 01524 846258.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PARISH JUSTICE & PEACE GROUP.....

THE TRADE JUSTICE MOVEMENT

2003 is a crucial year for trade justice. Our government is preparing for the next big meeting of the World Trade Organisation in Mexico next September. Decisions about international trade are on the agenda - the future of the lives of many of the world's poorest people are held in the balance. 300 million Africans live on less than one Euro a day. Debt service payments and unfair trade rules mean that money flows from poor countries to rich countries.

On the J & P table at the back of church are cards to send to Jacques Chirac, (Chairman of the June 8th meeting in Evian) to the MP, encouraging support for the Trade Justice Movement (which, among others, is backed by CAFOD and Christian Aid). Please take and send these cards.
