Today is an important day in the Parish's year. Fifteen of our young people will be making their First Holy Communion. For them, and for us, it is a significant day in their Journey of Faith. For them to grow in their Faith they, and their parents, need the support of our prayers. Their names are:-

Rebecca

Matthew

Sarah
Eve
Lauren

Jordan
Christopher
Thomas

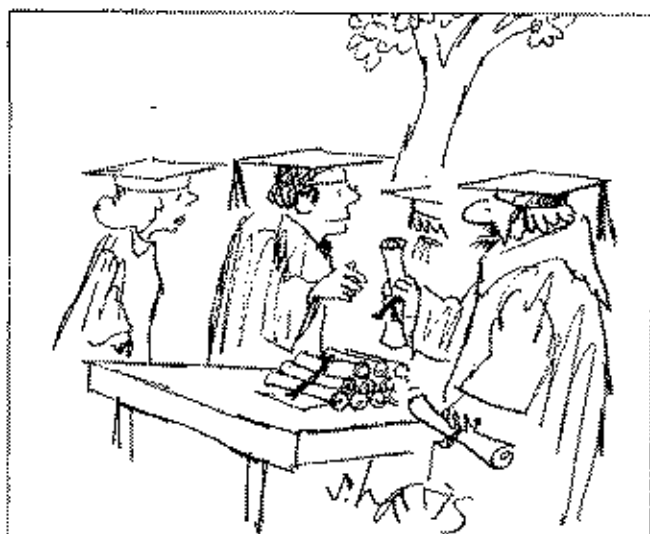

Heather
Sarah
Connor

Liam

Mistake last week! It's next Sunday when there's a special second collection for WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY.

NEXT THURSDAY is, of course, ASCENSION DAY. There are extra Masses at 8.0 am and 7.0 pm, as well as an evening Mass in Alston at 6.0pm

Our delegates to the Deanery Pastoral Group are reminded that there's a meeting for them at St Edmund's on Wednesday at 7.30. (Mass at 7.0)

The following have anniversaries about now:- Margaret Hayhoe Jack Johnston, Thomas Turner, Pat Dias, and Anne Callaghan. John Cox of Blackhall Farm died recently and is being buried on Tuesday May 25th at a time yet to be arranged.

Parishioners may well remember that a few weeks ago we distributed some leaflets on MARRIAGE & FAMILY LIFE (I notice there are still some left at the back of church). All the Bishops of England & Wales are anxious to stress the importance of the family and wish to promote discussion on the blessings and pitfalls of marriage and invite married and single people, young and old, divorced and separated to comment on our diocesan-wide consultation. Moreover there is a diocesan day conference on September 25th and our Bishop is asking for representation of at least two people from every parish - especially in the 25 to 40 age group. Let Fr Turner know if you are interested.

THANKS to Brian Bradley. He has repainted the lower interior walls of the church which were looking a bit shabby recently.
