WHIT SUNDAY
MAY 30TH 2004

Today, PENTECOST SUNDAY, we welcome our Bishop to the parish. This year we shared our sacramental preparation programme with Christ the King parish. Altogether 17 youngsters were made ready for Confirmation, ten from this parish. At the 4.30 Mass, therefore, Bishop Patrick will confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on these young people of our parish:-

Michael Sewell Kirsten Hornsby Scott Armstrong Thomas Nash Gabrielle Heneghan
Kelly Simpson Lisa Breen Sarah Fuller James Fisher Connor Rawson

(Thanks to Sister Theo who helped with the preparation programme.)

Two weeks ago 12 children made their FIRST HOLY COMMUNION and we would like to thank Lorena and Hilary, our catechists, who helped prepare the children for this important day in their spiritual journey.

Pick up the VOICE as you leave church today. Our poor beleaguered editor would love some response to the items he has gathered for June's issue! He has printed articles on passing on the Faith to children; marriage and family life; lay involvement in running parishes; the Rosary and a photo competition. Drop him a line or enter one of his competitions or express an opinion. He will love you for it!

CANOE NEWS

OUR LADY'S AFLOAT AT LAST!

The parish National Lottery bid has come to fruition! A six canoe capacity trailer and four 16 foot Canadian Canoes can be inspected after Mass this morning. Roy Wadeson and Gerald Richardson will be around to answer queries. Sister Mary has completed her research into religious characters and their connection with the sea and so the four boats have been named JONAH, ST CUTHBERT, ST BRENDAN, and MARIS STELLA (Star of the Sea). Roy and Gerald want to invite parishioners to a Beginners Training Session on Thirlmere Lake on Sunday June 13, meeting at Newman at 11.30 and returning about 5.30. Bring a picnic lunch. Gerald's contact number is 537791 if you want to go Canadian Canoeing.

A reminder for those who are about to get married. There's a one day Marriage Preparation Course at the Cumbria Park Hotel on June 13th. All who get married in a parish in this deanery are expected to attend one of these courses. Further details are on the noticeboard in the church porch.
