FIFTEENTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME
JULY 11TH 2004

THIS WEEK'S MUSIC Entry 243 Into one we all are gathered Offertory 920 A new commandment
Communion 913 Jesus my Lord my God my all Recessional 910 Christ be behind me

£1,886.18....

...was the total amount raised at last week's Summer Fayre. In spite of the wet weather, the Wimbledon Ladies' Final, and the fact that it had to be held indoors it was more than was raised last year! Many thanks to all who worked so hard – especially Anne Fuller and her organising team – all stall volunteers, all givers of goods, all lifters and carriers of tables, but MOST OF ALL (and this sounds a bit like the Palace of Varieties) YOURSELVES, for coming and spending all that money. It was a magnificent effort in spite of difficult and adverse circumstances. A breakdown of finances can be seen on the noticeboard (some small donations came in after that statement was compiled).

Some Clergy Raffle Prizes remain unclaimed:-

- 196-200 Green Malt Whisky
- 76-80 Green Meal Emperor's Palace
- 36-40 Green Meal Shepherds Inn
- 351-355 Green Meal Brewster's
- 371-375 Green Meal x 4 Fontana's
- 511-515 Green Tickets Lonsdale Cine.
- 631-635 White Painting & Book
- 411-415 White Pair Feather Pillows
- 341-345 Green £10 Voucher Le Gall's

Prizes can be picked up at the Rectory.

Today we would like to welcome Sister Daphne Norden of the Medical Mission Sisters. Each year we invite a speaker from the foreign missions to tell us something of their work and we support them with our prayers and practical contributions. This year it's the turn of the religious congregations of women and Sr Daphne will be speaking on behalf of several women's religious congregations.

Joe and Emma Cunningham have kindly volunteered to represent the parish at next September's Family Life Conference at Lancaster University.

In view of the today's Mission Appeal we will put off until next Sunday the Appeal for the Apostleship of the Sea.

THE ANGUELOS CHOIR

This choir of young people from Marseille are visiting England and will be in the Carlisle area next weekend. They have asked if they can sing at our 10.0 Mass next Sunday and we will be delighted to welcome them.
