Our Lady and St. Joseph's Canoe Club

Our canoe club goes from strength to strength!

Here's an Invitation for 16 parishioners to enjoy a day's canoeing on Derwentwater, departing Newman School at 9.00am and returning about 5.30pm on Sunday August 8th.

Roy Wadeson and Gerald Richardson, both BCU level 2 coaches, will lead the party paddling to St Herbert's Island for a picnic and then up the River Derwent. Bring a set of old clothes and food. All safety equipment will be provided. Transport via shared cars. (High winds may cause the trip to be cancelled). Interested? Phone Gerald Richardson on 537791. New canoeists wanting to learn more are welcome.

SVP Mass for the Sick

Last year we had a very successful Mass for the sick and our older parishioners, with a strawberry tea afterwards on the lawn. The SVP are organising a similar event this year on the Feast Day of our parish - Sunday August 15th, the Feast of the Assumption of Our Lady. The sacrament of the sick will be administered at the 4.30 Mass and those who have difficulty with transport are asked to contact any member of the SVP or one of the clergy.

Lourdes Pilgrimage

A welcome home to all those who attended the Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes. May your prayers be answered and may we share in the blessings you have received.

Catholic Caring Services

Once again, many thanks for your generosity. Last week's second collection for the Catholic Caring Services raised £363.29.

This will be the last second collection for some time!!
