The Parish Sunday Children's Liturgy.

We provide this for our children at every Sunday 10am Mass. It is a great opportunity for the children to celebrate the first part of the Mass in a simple, enjoyable way. Don't you to see more young people at our Sunday Mass?

But! PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE, we desperately need more parishioners, men and women, for this children's service. It's not a big commitment, but without you, we cannot do this for our children and their families.

Every session needs at least two adults working together. At the moment there is only myself, Susan Garbarino-Danson and Theresa Medley, so we have to prepare and take the Liturgy every week by ourselves.

Why not join us, for the sake of the children of the Parish? Why not come along to one of our Sunday Sessions in the next few weeks to see what it's like. Younger 'helpers' are also most welcome but regular leaders are needed. If you want, give me a ring on 01228 537514 to find out more about the Sunday Children's Liturgy. Susanne Garbarino-Danson

As usual, Gordon had forgotten that the Harvest services were so popular.

Fair Trade

Marks & Spencer plc recently announced they would be selling only Fair Trade coffee in their restaurants; Garstang was the first registered Fair Trade town a few years ago. This imaginative effort to pay Third World producers of coffee and other commodities a fair price for their goods is rapidly growing. Better than putting the bulk of what you pay into the pockets of the 'middle-man'. Do support your Fair Trade stall open at the back of church on Sundays.

Wrong Flowers!

A small business owner had just moved into new premises and one of the owner's friends wanted to send her flowers for the occasion. The local florist delivered them to the new business site. The owner opened the card and read: 'Rest In Peace'.

The owner called the florist to complain at the obvious mistake. The florist replied, "Madam, I am really sorry, but rather than getting angry you should imagine this. Somewhere there is a funeral taking place today and they have your flowers with a note saying: 'Congratulations on your new and warm location.' !!
