At all today's Masses a member of the parish Justice and Peace Group will talk about next Friday's Family Fast Day. There are two sorts of envelope for your Family Fast Offering – the one you have if you are a Parish Planned Giving Subscriber, or the one you can take as you leave church today. The one at the door does enable you to Gift Aid your giving and thus benefit CAFOD. Use either envelope when you bring it back next week.

HARVEST FESTIVAL MASS

Next Sunday the 10.0 Mass will be led by the children of St Cuthbert's School. Fr John Baron is now the school chaplain and he will celebrate the Mass. The Harvest gifts the children bring will be distributed by the SYP to people in need.

Last chance for signing up for the MEET YOUR NEIGHBOUR DAY on Saturday October 9th. There's a tour of the places of worship of Muslims and Hindus in Blackburn. An opportunity of listening to the stories of those who pray there, lunch, and visits to Asian shops are all arranged. Cost £12. Coach pick up points locally. Details from Andrew Dodd, Chapel Cottage, Hawkshead Hill, Ambleside. LA22 OPW. Tel. 015394 36451. Fax 015394 36032. Email andrew.dodd1@btinternet.com

THE PARISH is also looking for volunteers! There's a meeting in Lancaster at the Diocesan Education Centre about STEWARDSHIP on October 9th (10.15 to 4.0). We would like to know more about it and it would be very useful if a couple of parishioners could go down and report back to the Parish Pastoral Development Group. The diocese is also embarking on a review of religious education provision for Adults and children and every parish is invited to nominate one person to stand as a candidate for membership of the Review Body. You might not actually get voted on, but it would be good if someone put themselves forward as a possible member. In both cases see Fr Turner. Expenses, of course, will be paid!
